

Thank you received from Buddy Bell, Voices for Creative Nonviolence, after UUSG hosted 10 peace marchers for dinner, a presentation, overnight, and breakfast on their way to Thomson federal prison, where they were protesting building 1900 long-term solitary confinement cells.

“Thank you for all your help which made the walk to Thomson possible. It was an extraordinary gift to meet you all!”